Double-walled and vacuum-sealed, airpots from Chef's Supreme can retain heat for 4 to 6 hours. With the drink dispenser's pump top, self-service is made convenient and simple. A durable addition to any beverage station, the interior and exterior of this insulated airpot is lined with 201 stainless steel. The airpot's exterior features a satin-finish as well. The coffee airpot has a swivel base and features a sleek, black color for blending with any decoration. The removable head on this stainless airpot offers easy cleaning. It's perfect for offices, catering, hotels, convenience stores, lobbies, and more!
